Editorial Review

Review

Ms Elliott's research of the Napoleonic war is wonderful ... The emotion of all her characters, from Georgiana herself who commits her feelings to her diary, to Kitty Bennet's regret and Harriett Forster's grief, is beautifully handled. ... I'm now a devoted fan of Ms Elliott's novels. --Anita Davison, Historical Novel Review

Georgiana and Kitty grow up fast in this novel. Watching these pampered, upper-class women suffer through the horrors of the aftermath of battle and yet stay and take care of the soldiers, was a test of their characters that changed them forever, giving them a perspective few have, and an appreciation for life that few truly enjoy. --Sarah's Book Shelves
