Un indio zapoteco llamado Benito Juárez (Punto de Lectura) (Spanish Edition) By Fernando Benítez

200 years after the birth of Benito Juárez, Benítez book answers the demand for information on this historical figure. Accompanied by detailed accounts of the events that shaped Pre-Porfirian Mexico, Benítez brings forth the human being breathing inside the hero. Finally, an essential reference guide for historical devotees is made accessible to any budget. Description in Spanish: A 200 años del natalicio de Benito Juárez, el libro de Benítez corona la demanda de información sobre el Benemérito de las Américas. Desde el nacimiento de Juárez y de la nación mexicana, hasta la muerte de don Benito y el inicio del México porfiriano, Benítez descubre todas las etapas de un héroe y lo humaniza. Un libro imprescindible para la consulta académica y para los devoradores de biografías, a un costo accesible para bolsillos de estudiantes y juaristas devotos. Juárez. Fue el mismo que abandonó el seminario por la escuela laica y buscó como abogado el beneficio de los necesitados. Justo ese Juárez fue quien no entregó el ayuntamiento de México en 1863, sino hasta después de rendirle honores a la bandera y clausurar las sesiones del Congreso (una avanzada forma de propaganda contra la invasión, si se analiza con detalle). Y fue el mismo personaje que se volvió aún más callado tras la muerte de su esposa. Benito Juárez tuvo muchas caras; Fernando Benítez descubre todas sus facetas mientras narra los acontecimientos que moldearon al México preporfiriano y nos acerca a un lado casi anecdótico de Juárez, el ser humano.
