Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

YA-- This novel is modeled after the television series "Murder, She Wrote," using Jessica Fletcher as the main character and sleuth. The setting is England, where a leading mystery writer, Marjorie Ainsworth, has been murdered on the eve of the International Society of Mystery Writers convention. Jessica slowly unravels the clues to her friend's death and the questions about the authorship of her last book. Readers will enjoy this novel of familiar characters, the expected plot twists, and the satisfying ending. Some readers may wonder who the real author or ghost writer of this mystery is--Jessica Fletcher or Donald Bain.
