El Garante: Coleccion Mejores Thrillers Latinos (Collateral Man: Best Latino Thrillers Series) (Spanish Edition) By Alex Ferrara, Jose Levy

Martin Mondragon meets the Devil's messenger, Joe Sagasti, who comes to collect an unpaid soul-debt left by Martin's late grandfather. As the descendant of the debtor, Martin, unbeknownst to himself, is the guarantor of the agreement, the collateral man. Sagasti initially pressures Martin, as a matter of honor, to surrender his soul for no benefit at all. A drop of blood on an ancient parchment, and the matter can be settled very easily. When Martin refuses, Sagasti unleashes a horrific chain of events to convince Martin that life can sometimes be worse than death. Martin sets out to fight his enemy and the dark powers of Hell, to keep his soul and his sanity, with no tools beyond his analytical mind. Martin must learn the one secret his grandfather never told him--how to beat the Devil himself.

From the Publisher

"Excellent novel. The story is captivating and leaves an indelible mark in the reader. Collateral Man is a fast-reading, attractive and captivating novel, and so well written that you can't put it down."

–StephenKing.com.ar (Insomnia Magazine) "Excellent. The story develops in a crescendo of suspense. A thriller full of Hollywood reminiscences." –BUENOS AIRES HERALD (best English Argentinean newspaper) "A disquieting but engaging plot, both compelling but relaxed, sordid but delectable. Collateral Man offers a demolishing game of intrigue and tension." –Luis Hermida, CLARÍN (Latin America's largest circulation newspaper) "Great Thriller. It's well written and tightly edited. It moves with a gripping speed." –Jan Nathan, Executive Director, PMA (Publishers Marketing Assoc.) "The novel goes deep into the characters, leading the reader to believe that the story is actually possible. I just loved it and it haunted me from the beginning." –Lito Cruz, Leading Argentinean Film & TV Actor "Written with unusual talent and emotion, the plot of this thriller is based on a new turn to the Faust tale. The authors show great narrative energy, in which the suspense builds up to an ending full of hope. Masterly structured and skillfully developed." –Latin Literary

From the Author

Collateral Man provides a creative twist on the Faust tale and is written at a relentless pace which makes it impossible for any reader to put it down. The premise? What happens when the Devil, tired of being deceived by reluctant signatories who refuse to hand in their souls at the moment of death, designs a new way to protect his 'business'?
