Editorial Review

Review

I recommend this text to anyone wanting to prepare for their CEN, CFRN, or CTRN exams, or for just honing their critical care knowledge. A MUST have for your library!!! -- James Grove, ICU Manager

Mr. Patterson has one of THE BEST reference books out there and helps prepare you for certification as a CEN, CFRN, CTRN, or FP-C. --Amanda Munoz, Flight Nurse

This is the best Review Book I have seen thus far. I purchased this book 2 months prior to my certification exam and passed without any problems the first attempt. This was exactly what I needed to prep me for this exam, and without it, I may not have been focused enough to know where I was weak. --Alex Dominion, CCRN, CFRN

About the Author

In addition to being an Instrument rated Commercial Helicopter & Airplane Pilot, Richard is also a Certificated Flight Instructor for Helicopters as well as an Advanced & Instrument Ground Instructor. Richard has worked in Emergency Management and as a Flight Paramedic for the last 18 years. He has managed several air medical programs, has helped start two programs from the ground up, and worked as Base Supervisor for several CAMTS accredited rotor-wing programs. He is Instructor credentialed in BCLS, ACLS, PALS, ITLS, NRP, PEPP, PHTLS, ENPC, and EMT-Paramedic. Richard oversees the daily operations of Critical Care Concepts; a State approved ALS Training Agency with the Virginia Office of EMS, and has provided training programs in approximately 10 US States, as well as Canada, South America, Central America, and South Korea, in a multitude of areas. In addition to being a regular contributing writer for three air medical industry magazines, his work has also been published in various nursing and EMS journal publications.
