Conner's Wolf (Supernatural Bonds, Book Six) By Jory Strong
Book 6 in the Supernatural Bonds series. Homicide detective Conner Stern doesn't know what Khemirra Reis is running from, only that he's damn determined to find out. Right after he lays her bare beneath him and works the beautiful obsession out of his system. Sexual satisfaction first, revealing her secrets second—that's the plan—except Khemirra is battling a fascination of her own. Her rational mind says stay far, far away from the gorgeous cop who doesn't want anything to do with the supernatural. But after Conner catches up to her and shows her with heated kisses and carnal demands just how perfect they can be together, the wolf part of her nature is convinced he's the right mate. Conner wants her trust. She needs his help. But Khemirra doesn't know which of her secrets Conner will hate more—that she killed a man, or that she's a werewolf. Unless love overrides all else, they'll lose any chance of a future together.
